EDMONTON'S MUNICIPAL GOLF COURSES

The City of Edmonton owns and operates three 18-hole golf courses and a driving range, each located on the banks of the North Saskatchewan River in Edmonton's scenic river valley.

VICTORIA GOLF COURSE AND DRIVING RANGE

Victoria Golf Course, established in 1896, is Canada's oldest municipal golf course. Edmonton grew up around the course and, today, Victoria Golf Course rests in the heart of the city.

Victoria's wide fairways and gentle rolling greens are forgiving to casual golfers while offering strategic challenge to high handicap players. This makes Victoria — a 5,875 yard, par 71 course — ideal for a tournament that includes golfers at all levels. Beautiful views of the Legislature Building and the downtown skyline add to an enjoyable day in the river valley.

ADDED FEATURES

DRIVING RANGE

Victoria is home to one of the largest driving ranges in Western Canada. With 61-stalls and a well laid out practice green, you can warm up your swing and knock the rust off your putter and irons.

VICTORIA CLUBHOUSE

You don't need to be a golfer to relax, unwind, or celebrate at this historic course. The clubhouse overlooks the scenic, tree-lined golf course and offers food and beverage services from the popular Dogwood Café, part of the Culina Family of Restaurants. The Dogwood Café, The Victoria Social Banquet room, is adjacent to the café and offers floor to ceiling windows, a gas fireplace and a wrap-around deck. It's the perfect spot to book for your next business meeting, retreat, golf tournament, social gathering, wedding or holiday celebration!
