

Municipal Government Board

Annexation is a normal process set out by the Province in the Municipal Government Act. The Municipal Government Board considers the application to annex lands and makes a recommendation to the Province using the following process:

