

Edmonton's Negotiation Team

The annexation proposal to acquire land in Leduc County and the Town of Beaumont is governed by the Municipal Government Act, and is administered by the provincial Municipal Government Board.

A key step in the annexation process is the appointment of negotiating committees by the municipalities involved. The negotiation committees typically consist of three to four members of a council, including the mayor. The goal of the committees is to negotiate an agreement to be reviewed by the Municipal Government Board and approved by the Province.

The representatives for the City of Edmonton are: Mayor Don Iveson and Councillors Bryan Anderson, Ed Gibbons, and Michael Walters.
