

Parks Supervisor- Licensed

DEFINITION

This classification is found only within the Parks and Recreation Department. This is an advanced field level position that provides leadership and direction in strategic planning and team direction. This involves organizing, developing, assigning, co-ordinating, evaluating, scheduling and prioritizing work performed by teams engaged in all facets of park, facility, capital construction, roadway landscaping and zoological management. Employees in this class demonstrate commitment to teamwork by encouraging consultation and participation in decision making in their functional areas.

This position is responsible for decision making, team building and empowerment of staff. It is also responsible for managing human, financial and material resources required to accomplish approved work plans. This position is responsible for customer service, effective verbal and written communications and independent problem solving.

This classification differs from subordinate classes as it does not participate in hands-on, field related activities. It is required to function independently.
