

Edmonton Transit System (ETS)

JULY 28, 2014

1. ETS News

Introducing ETS Stealth, Edmonton's first electric bus

Beginning June 9 the City of Edmonton will begin testing two electric buses (named ETS Stealth) on ETS routes across the city.

There's no telling where or when the ETS Stealth bus will show up, but when it does passengers will be invited to board free of charge and asked to complete a survey.

New Kingsway/RAH Transit Centre

Edmonton Transit is pleased to announce that the new Kingsway/Royal Alex Transit Centre will open for service starting Sunday, June 29, 2014.

Transit and Police Partnership (TAPP) initiative

The TAPP partnership on Edmonton's LRT is an opportunity for Transit Peace Officers and Edmonton Police to work together beginning July 17, 2014.

Shuttle Service to Fort Edmonton Park

This summer take a trip back in time with ETS! Enjoy direct shuttle service from South Campus/Fort Edmonton Park Transit Centre to Fort Edmonton Park daily this summer!

2. April and May Statistics

Transit Ridership Information for APRIL
Ridership	Total Year to Date
2013	31,594,205
2014	32,134,025
Change from 2013 to 2014	539,820
Percentage Change	1.71

Transit Ridership Information for MAY
Ridership	Total Year to Date
2013	37,847,338
2014	38,564,034
Change from 2013 to 2014	716,696
Percentage Change	1.89