

Instructors – Potential Sources

Contact your CRC for some helpful tips for finding potential instructors. Some other sources may be:

- People in your own neighbourhood
- Instructors who contact you about teaching for you
- Past instructors
- Alberta Teachers' Association for teachers of a particular topic
- Continuing Education (Public and Separate School Boards)
- Grant MacEwan University
- YMCA/YWCA
- Schools
- University of Alberta, Individual Faculties and Faculty of Extension
- NAIT for instructors of skills and trades
- Government of Alberta Consumer and Corporate Affairs
- Crafts shops for Arts and Crafts Instructors
- Community Services
- Beauty shops for hair care courses
- Telephone book, Yellow Pages, hobby shops, dance instructors, music instructors
- Society for the Retired and Semi-Retired registry
- Nursery and plant shops for plant care instruction
- Advertisements in newspapers – i.e. University of Alberta's newspaper, Examiner
- Public libraries frequently offer consumer interest courses
- Special interest associations and clubs (i.e. gymnastics clubs, rock collecting club).