  - (2) If a candidate dies following the opening of voting stations on election day or any advance vote
    - (a) the election for the office for which the deceased candidate was nominated must be discontinued, and
    - (b) a new election for that office must be held as soon as practicable.

PART III - ELECTION PROCEDURES

- VOTING HOURS 9 On election day, all voting stations will be open continuously between 9:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.

FORM OF BALLOT	10	The returning officer must establish the form of ballot for each election, and may use a single ballot card for all offices for which an election is being held.
SPECIAL BALLOTS	11	(1) Electors may vote by special ballot in any City election. (2) An application for a special ballot may be made to the returning officer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) in writing;</li> <li>(b) by telephone;</li> <li>(c) by fax;</li> <li>(d) in person;</li> <li>(e) by e-mail; or</li> <li>(f) by secure website designated by the returning officer.</li> </ul> (3) For a general election: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) applications for special ballots must be submitted between August 1 of the year in which the general election is held and 4:30 p.m. on election day; and</li> <li>(b) completed special ballots must be received by the returning officer no later than 7:00 p.m. on election day.</li> </ul> (4) For any other election or a vote on a bylaw or question, the application periods and receipt deadline for special ballots must be stated in the resolution fixing the date of the election.
BLIND ELECTOR TEMPLATE	12	The returning officer must provide an electronic ballot marking device for blind electors during all advance votes, and must notify electors that the device will be available when giving notice of the election.
USE OF TABULATORS	13	The returning officer may provide for the taking of votes of electors by means of voting machines, vote recorders, or automated voting systems, and if so provided will follow the voting procedures set out in this bylaw.
TABULATOR VOTING PROCEDURES	14	Electors will mark their ballot by completely filling the designated space next to the name of the candidate they wish to vote for.

- 15 After marking their ballot, electors will place the completed ballot within the provided secrecy sleeve and feed it into the tabulator to be counted.
- 16 (1) If the tabulator rejects a marked ballot, the elector will be offered the opportunity to complete a replacement ballot.
- (2) If the elector completes a replacement ballot, the original ballot will be deemed spoiled.
- (3) If the elector declines a replacement ballot, the original ballot will be deemed rejected.
- 17 If a tabulator fails at any time while a voting station is open, electors will insert their ballots directly into an auxiliary ballot box.

BALLOTS

- 18 (1) This section applies to all ballots not counted by a tabulator at the time of voting, including special ballots and ballots deposited in an auxiliary ballot box.
- (2) Following the close of a voting station, ballots deposited in an auxiliary ballot box may be counted by inserting them into a functioning tabulator or by manual count.
- (3) At any time after 7:30 p.m. on election day, any other ballots not counted by a tabulator at the time of voting may be counted by inserting them into a functioning tabulator or by manual count.

RECOUNT

- 19 If the returning officer conducts a recount for any election, the returning officer may use tabulators to complete the count.
