Constable Daniel Woodall was killed in the line of duty on June 8, 2015 while responding to a hate crime complaint. He was 35 years old and served with the Edmonton Police Service (EPS) for eight years.

Constable Woodall served with the Greater Manchester Police in England for four years prior to graduating from the EPS Recruit Class in 2007.

While most recently serving in the Hate Crime Unit, Constable Woodall helped those who were abused and bullied, and protected those who needed assistance. He excelled in this position.

The memorial for Constable Woodall drew an incredible amount of support from Edmontonians, as well as his family, friends, and colleagues from around the globe. He is remembered as a man who loved his family. He loved his job and was a friend to everyone he encountered.

Constable Woodall is survived by his wife and two sons, as well as his parents in Great Britain.
