‘How to’ Guide | Registration process for prospective Third Party Advertisers

Municipal elections in Alberta are governed by the Local Authorities Election Act (LAEA).

Part 8 of the LAEA refers to Third Party Advertisers (TPAs) and includes information regarding eligibility requirements, registration requirements, the responsibilities of Third Parties, financial disclosures and other important regulations.

It is essential that prospective TPAs understand the full extent of their legislated obligations. The information below is provided as a guide. Edmonton Elections encourages prospective TPAs to seek independent legal advice.

Definitions
A TPA is an eligible individual, group or corporation that supports or opposes a candidate through election advertising.

Legislated requirements | Registration
TPAs must register with Edmonton Elections when or if they plan to:

- Accept advertising contributions of at least $1,000
- Incur advertising expenses of at least $1,000

To register with Edmonton Elections, prospective TPAs must submit Form 27: Registration of a Third Party for review and approval by the Returning Officer or designate.
Before completing Form 27

Confirm Eligibility
To be eligible to register with Edmonton Elections, a prospective TPA must be one of the following:

- An individual who resides in Alberta
- A group of which all members reside in Alberta
- A corporation that carries out business in Alberta
- An Alberta trade union or Alberta employee organization

Note: A trade union/employee organization may be either a corporation or group, depending on how it is structured.

The following are prohibited from registering as a TPA:

- Any individual, group or corporation that does not meet the requirements described above
- A registered charity
- A prohibited corporation, as described in the Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act

Find the Official Form
Prospective TPAs must complete and submit the official Form 27: Registration of a Third Party.

Gather supporting materials
Groups and corporations must provide proof of status when submitting Form 27.

Groups must provide:

- A copy of the resolution passed by the group that confirms its intention to act as a TPA. This may be presented in the form of certified meeting minutes or a letter signed by the Chief Executive Officer;
- A letter, signed by the Chief Executive Officer, that confirms that the information provided in Form 27 is accurate and that the group, and its applicable members, are eligible to register as a TPA;
- A list of principal officers or principal members.

Note: Groups may submit a single letter, signed by the CEO, that serves as both a resolution and statement of eligibility. The list of principal officers or principal members may be contained within the letter or submitted as a separate document.
Corporations must provide:

- Proof of formal registration of the corporation in Alberta.
  - A ‘Current Alberta and extra-provincial corporation search’ is available from Registry Agents in Alberta. Visit alberta.ca for more information

Note: Any cost incurred in acquiring proof of status is the responsibility of the third party.

- A copy of the resolution passed by the group that confirms its intention to act as a TPA. This may be presented in the form of certified meeting minutes or a letter signed by the Chief Executive Officer.
Completing Form 27

1. Make sure you have the official form

   - Download Form 27: Registration of a Third Party or complete the fillable PDF.
   - Check to make sure that the Edmonton Elections logo and the official title of the form are displayed in the document.

2. Enter TPA details

   - Initial Registration [ ] Update to Registration [ ]
   - (Name of Third Party)
   - (Website of Third Party)
   - Entity Type [ ] Person [ ] Group [ ] Corporation

   - Indicate whether this is an initial registration or an update to an existing registration.
   - Enter the name and website of the TPA
     - Refer to Section 163(5) of the LAEA for restriction on permitted names for TPAS

   Note: This information will appear in the Edmonton Elections TPA Registry, which is published on edmonton.ca/elections.

   - Indicate whether the Third Party is an individual, group or corporation.

   Note: Remember that confirmation of status for groups and corporations must be enclosed with the registration form.
3. Complete the Primary Contact section

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Notes:
- If the third party requesting registration is a Corporation, the Primary Contact Information must be that of the officer who has signing authority for it.
- If the third party requesting registration is a Group, the Primary Contact Information must be that of the Principal Officer or Principal Member. A listing of all Officers and Members must also be attached to this application.

- Enter the name, mailing address, postal code, email address, primary phone number and alternate phone number of the Third Party's primary contact.

Note: The name and primary phone number of the primary contact will appear in Edmonton Elections TPA Registry, which is published on edmonton.ca/elections.

- The primary contact must be:
  - For Individuals: The person who intends to act as a TPA.
  - For Corporations: Someone who has signing authority for the corporation.
  - For Groups: The group's Principal Officer or Principal Member. This is someone with decision making authority for the group.
4. Complete the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) section

The person acting as the CFO for a TPA has a number of important legislated responsibilities, including the management of received contributions and incurred expenses, dealing with funds remaining in the advertising account following the conclusion of the election advertising period and maintaining the financial records of the TPA.

CFOs should be aware of the full extent of their obligations, as described in Part 8 of the LAEA.

- Enter the name, mailing address, postal code, email address, primary phone number and alternate phone number of the Third Party's CFO.

  or

- Check the box to indicate that the primary contact is also the Third Party's CFO.

Note: The name of the CFO will appear in Edmonton Elections TPA Registry, which is published on edmonton.ca/elections.
5. Complete the Location of Records section

TPAs must retain their records. Records include things like receipts for incurred expenses and receipts issued to contributors.

Official correspondence from Edmonton Elections and Municipal Affairs will be sent to this address.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Location Records are maintained and communications addressed</th>
