

Message From His Worship
Mayor Don Iveson

On behalf of City Council and the people of Edmonton, Alberta's Capital City, I welcome everyone to the 2016 Salute to Excellence Performance and Citation Awards.

These annual awards recognize Edmontonians who help shape our city through their leadership, vision and contributions to our community life. Whether it is in the areas of arts and culture, sport or community service – these outstanding individuals and groups solve problems, fill needs and share their talents to make our city a better place.

I thank the 2016 recipients for helping to build Edmonton into a great city. I also thank the Salute to Excellence organizers who coordinated these awards. Your efforts enhance our civic pride and contribute to the cultural fabric of our city.

Yours truly,

Don Iveson, Mayor

Citation Awards

The City of Edmonton has earned its reputation as the City of Volunteers. Every facet of life in our city is enriched by the dedication of its citizens in arts and culture, community service, and sports.

Citation Awards honour those individuals or groups who have given significant service and inspiring leadership in these areas.

Rajammal Ram

Arts and Culture

Rajammal Ram is the founder and director of the Kala Nilayam School of Dance. For more than 40 years, she has passionately promoted Indian culture in Edmonton through classical Indian and folk dance. Ram is an executive member of the Edmonton Folk Arts Council, Canadian Kerala Cultural Association, and Council of India Societies of Edmonton.

She has supported fundraising ventures to benefit the Mental Health Foundation of Edmonton, One World Centre, Edmonton Food Bank, and many others. Her talent has been showcased at events that include the Journey through Asia, Rhythms of World Exhibit, and 2001 World Track and Field Games.

Matthew Wood

Arts and Culture

Matthew Wood “aka Creeasian” is an artist as well as a youth worker and dedicated community organizer. A dancer and deejay, he shares his talent and passion for hip hop culture and social change in innovative and inspiring ways. His efforts have especially impacted high-risk youth in the inner city.

Wood created the weekly public hip hop block party event, CyperwildYEG, to provide a safe creative space for people to come together to express themselves artistically through dance, song, visual arts, and storytelling. Wood brings hip hop to the Boyle Street Education Centre, as well as across Alberta, where he works to break down stereotypes and build inclusive communities that celebrate diversity.

Dr. Rob Agostinis

Community Service

Dr. Rob Agostinis is the founder and past president of the Terwillegar Riverbend Advisory Council, which was integral to building the community's recreation centre. Dedicated to providing opportunities through community service, Agostinis was instrumental in establishing the South West Edmonton Farmers Market, Edmonton Youth Talent Show, and other events. He cofounded the South West Edmonton Seniors' Association and the Terwillegar Riverbend Soccer Association, and serves as the Oak Hills Community League president. In addition to numerous other volunteer roles, he is an integral part of the Brander Gardens ROCKS (Reaching Out to Community Kids) collaborative and the community working group of the EndPoverty Edmonton Task Force.

Don Baergen

Community Service

Don Baergen has supported the positive integration of newcomers to Canada for more than three decades through his work at the Edmonton Mennonite Centre for Newcomers. He has single-handedly helped more than 10,000 people settle and integrate, providing steadfast support well beyond work hours or requirements. His tireless, compassionate example has motivated and inspired colleagues, practicum students, and volunteers, to provide meaningful settlement experiences that help newcomers feel at home and better able to overcome the challenges of integrating. A true champion, Baergen has assisted refugees and immigrants from Vietnam, Chile, the former Yugoslavia, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Somalia, Syria, and other areas.

David Embury

Sports

David Embury is a community builder who has provided decades of contribution to Edmonton's cycling community. He is the cofounder of the Edmonton Juventus Cycling Club, which teaches cycling and has produced national, world, international, and Olympic champions. Embury established the Argyll Velodrome Association to lead redevelopment after a six-year facility closure. Since it reopened, thousands of students have visited and hundreds of youth, elite, and masters have trained and raced here. Embury led the project to expand and modernize the Argyll Velodrome Clubhouse and was instrumental in bringing the 2005 World Masters Games to Edmonton. He now leads a project to establish a state-of-the-art indoor velodrome as part of the Coronation Recreation Centre.
