On behalf of City Council and the people of Edmonton, Alberta's Capital City, it's my great pleasure to extend sincere congratulations to everyone being recognized at tonight's Salute to Excellence Citation and Performance Awards.

It's not just stone and mortar that build great cities. Great cities are built by its people. These awards salute and honour those individuals who have truly contributed to the unique and diverse framework of our community. Your dedication, talent and achievements provide leadership, vision and a reason to celebrate our city and its citizens.

Thank you for inspiring others and for making Edmonton a world-class city.

All the best for an enjoyable evening!

Citation Awards

The City of Edmonton has justifiably earned its reputation as the City of Volunteers. Every facet of life in Edmonton is enriched by the dedication of volunteers in arts and culture, sports, and community service.

The Citation Award honours those individuals or groups who have given significant service and inspiring leadership in these areas.

Ida Banks

Arts and Culture

As head of Banks Associated Music, one of Canada's largest and most respected entertainment agencies, Ida Banks has mentored hundreds of Edmonton artists and provided employment opportunities for scores of talented individuals. Her outstanding contributions to the Edmonton arts community come as a result of her professional guidance, high standards, attention to detail, and tireless efforts to promote Edmonton artists and arts-related causes. As well as serving as a writer, producer, and arts administration leader, Banks has excelled as a performer in Edmonton's musical and theatrical scene. Her expertise and knowledge have contributed to a richer and more diverse arts community in Edmonton.

Craig Magill

Arts and Culture

The late Craig Magill blessed Edmonton with unswerving dedication to the Edmonton Jazz Society and jazz community. He encouraged countless musicians to play at the volunteer-run Yardbird Suite and was extensively involved in making it a first-class venue. Over a 50 year span, Magill's involvement included serving as president, music programmer, and board member. He popularized Edmonton's music scene internationally and mentored many Edmonton musicians who now play on world stages. During his extensive travels, Magill was an active ambassador for the City of Edmonton and its jazz community. As teacher and principal at the Alberta School for the Deaf, Magill gave his time generously and was always involved in students' extra-curricular activities.

Robert Bentley

Community Service

Robert Bentley is a dedicated volunteer leader who quietly works in the background to support Edmonton both provincially and nationally. He has served on the board of the YMCA and as chair of the Alberta Cancer Foundation, Cross Cancer Institute Charity Golf Tournament, and Canadian Automotive Dealer Association. Bentley played a leading role in 1996 with the Friends of the Oilers in their effort to keep the team in Edmonton. Presently co-chair of the $8 million Prostate Cancer Research Chair campaign, Bentley is involved with the Alberta Enterprise Group which supports communities to improve life for all Albertans.

Gita Das

Community Service

Dr. Gita Das is a selfless, committed volunteer who has helped countless immigrants access jobs, housing, and education. She is actively engaged in settlement services, language training, and the promotion of Canadian values and citizenship. Her published work includes five books written in Oriya dealing with mental health, family conflict, and societal development in minority communities. Das is a long-time volunteer with the Indo-Canadian Women's Association. She has served on the Ethnocultural Consultation Coalition, Edmonton Mental Health Advisory Committee, and as president of the Intercultural Action Committee for the Advancement of Women. As a psychologist, she volunteers her time and expertise working with women and youth.

Mike Zouhri

Community Service

Mike Zouhri is a humanitarian and community advocate who has been involved in many organizations. Through diligence, commitment, and flexibility, this young leader has achieved remarkable results. As president and cofounder of Action ALS, he helps those suffering from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis. He serves on the board of the Edmonton Non-Profit Housing Corporation and has raised significant funds for causes relating to youth, poverty, social justice, and disease. Zouhri speaks publicly about his volunteer experiences and has inspired countless individuals who have gone on to lead their own groups.

Darcy Berger

Sport

After 10 years coaching touch football, Darcy Berger became head coach of the Edmonton Storm women's tackle football team. He was primary in the development and growth of this sport in Western Canada. Under Berger's tutelage, the Edmonton Storm won the Western Canadian championship for the last six years. Thanks to his coaching, six Edmonton Storm players were chosen to play on Canada's national competitive team. He has dedicated himself to enhancing team performance—from buying and repairing equipment to arranging physiotherapy. When he is not coaching, Berger works as a firefighter/paramedic for Strathcona County.

Arts & Culture Performance Award

Marie Anne McLean

Marie Anne McLean has been storytelling with The Alberta League Encouraging Storytelling (TALES) since 1986. She has enchanted audiences with her collection of veterans' stories of the D-Day Landing in World War II, as well as those of her grandparents' experiences during the Great Depression in Scotland and on the Canadian prairies. Canada's national storytelling association, Storytellers of Canada-Conteurs du Canada, chose McLean to record a representative selection of her stories for the StorySave Project. She is the only Edmontonian to have been singled out for this honour and one of seven Canadians to be chosen for this project. Her CD set Stories from the Prairies: From the Back Forty to Main Street to D-Day was released in 2009.
