

2006 Salute to Excellence Performance and Citation Recipients

Arts and Culture Performance Awards

Cast of Black Rider

Black Rider, produced by Corinne Kessel and Michael Scholar Jr. of November Theatre was the only work selected from Alberta to perform at the Magnetic North Theatre Festival this year. The Magnetic North Theatre Festival is Canada's national festival of contemporary Canadian theatre.

Cantilon Chamber Choir

The Cantilon Chamber Choir, under the direction of Heather Johnson, represented Canada at the 23rd Annual Bela Bartok International Choral Competition in Debrecen, Hungary this summer. The Choir received the highest scores in their class and the second highest score for all choirs, both adult and children. In addition, they received two outstanding prizes, one for the 'Best Performance of a Hungarian Work' and 'Purity of Tone and Authentic Interpretation'.

Cast and Crew of Die Nasty

Die Nasty is a live improvised soap opera, running in Edmonton since 1991. Die Nasty's improv comedy format features a continuing storyline, recurring characters and live music. A director sets up scenes for the audience and performers in voiceover. Die Nasty has recently been honoured with a special 'Elizabeth Sterling Haynes Award for Excellence in Theatre'
