How do I enter the “When do you shelter-in-place?” Contest?

To enter the contest, you must

A) Tweet @cityofedmonton an example of when you would need to shelter-in-place including the hashtag #yegprepare.

OR

B) Comment on our contest Facebook post found on the City of Edmonton's Facebook page giving an example of when you would need to shelter-in-place.

Only one entry per person will be allowed. Multiple entries will result in disqualification.

Entries will be deemed to be made by the authorized Twitter or Facebook account holder at time of entry. “Authorized account holder” is deemed as the natural person who is assigned to a Twitter or Facebook address. Anyone found to use multiple Twitter accounts to enter will be ineligible. No responsibility is assumed by The City of Edmonton for lost, late, misdirected, or incomplete tweets or any computer, online telephone or technical malfunctions that may occur in the processing, transmission or receipt of entries. This promotion is in no way sponsored, endorsed or administered by, or associated with, Twitter or Facebook.

How is a winner chosen?

Contestants who correctly tweet or comment with their responses will have their names entered into a random draw to win a prize. There will be a random draw for (2) Prizes.

Winners from Twitter will be contacted via direct message and winners from Facebook will be contacted by personal message. All prize winners must answer a skill-testing mathematical question in person to receive his/her prize. Contest winners will have 14 days to claim their prize upon the direct message or personal message from the City of Edmonton.

In order to win one of the prizes, contestants must:
