Purpose and Goal
The purpose of the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board (SDAB) is to hear appeals as required by the Municipal Government Act from persons affected by a decision of the Development Authority or the Subdivision Authority (i.e. City of Edmonton Development Officers and Planners).

The goal of SDAB is to act as a quasi-judicial board and conduct impartial and fair hearings and deliver timely decisions.

Structure
The SDAB is composed of up to 30 members who sit in panels of three members.

Meeting Times
The SDAB generally has one to two panels running every Wednesday and Thursday throughout the year, starting at 9 a.m. and often finishing late in the afternoon. There may be hearings on a Tuesday or Friday, as required. The Board may have between six and 16 hearing days a month.

Board members are scheduled for hearings on a rotational and availability basis. Member participation in the Board’s professional development sessions, which occur before and during the hearing season, is also required.

Remuneration
- $170, up to and including 4 Hours in any day
- $320, for 4 to 8 Hours in any day
- $470, over 8 Hours in any day

Appointment Term
- SDAB members are appointed for one-year terms (from May 1 to April 30), renewable to a maximum of nine consecutive years.
- Civic agency members eligible for reappointment will be evaluated as per Procedure C575D, Agencies, Boards, Committees and Commissions.
