Alley Renewal Update!

Rideau Park and Royal Gardens have been chosen for Alley Renewal and design is currently underway with construction anticipated to begin between 2023 and 2025.

Alley renewal includes:

- Removing all alley road infrastructure (to the dirt) then reconstructing alley roads with a new base and hard surface
- Improving surface drainage where possible
- Minor widening to improve turning movements where space allows

Please see the reverse side of this flyer for a map of your alley.

- ALLEY PAVED SURFACE
  - POSSIBLE TREE IMPACT (CITY PROPERTY)
  - TURNING MOVEMENT IMPROVEMENT
- PROPOSED PROTECTIVE POSTS
- NEW SIDEWALK
- Turning movement improvements include minor widening of the driving surface. All neighbourhood alleys and access points were considered for widening but space constrictions limited this improvement.
- Trees located on road right-of-way (City property), have been identified as having possible impacts. A City of Edmonton Urban Forester will be conducting further assessments to understand these impacts.
- + Proposed wooden posts have been recommended in areas to better identify the alley driving space.

Construction

Construction of alleys in Rideau Park and Royal Gardens is anticipated to occur between 2023 and 2025. Project updates including alley renewal staging will be available as we get closer to construction.

Once construction starts in your alley, it will not be accessible for about four weeks. During this time, parking and waste collection will move to the front street. For more information please view the Rideau Park/Royal Gardens Alley Renewal information booklet online and sign-up for project email updates at edmonton.ca/RideauParkRoyalGardens.

Did you know that the Alley Renewal Program will renew a total of 1200 km of alleys in Edmonton over the next 25 years? That's the distance between Edmonton and Vancouver!
