

2022 Anti-racism Grant Program Grant Recipients

Organization & Project Description	Approved Funding
Local Anti-racism Capacity Building/Innovation Grant Stream
Above Your Service will support Indigenous elders and knowledge keepers in teaching people experiencing homelessness about ceremony such as smudging and storytelling.	$10,000
Alberta Workers Association for Research and Education will create a safe accessible space for Spanish speaking women who are undocumented to learn about issues related to employment, rights, access to City resources, and training.	$14,995
Focas: Foundation For Oromian Culture Education And Art Services will focus on direct anti-racism advocacy and development of resilience against racism and discrimination in newcomer and immigrant children and youth.	$15,000
Indo-Canadian Women's Association of Edmonton will provide a facilitated session and tour of the Indigenous Peoples Experience at Fort Edmonton Park for Indo-Canadian Women's Association of Edmonton's membership, staff, volunteers and stakeholders.	$6,055
Standing Together (Fiscal agent: YWCA) organized a commemorative walk for survivors and inter-generational survivors of Canada's residential schools on September 30, 2022.	$15,000
Stop Race Based Hate (Fiscal agent: John Humphrey Centre for Peace and Human Rights) will expand Stop Race Based Hate, a free online tool that aims to educate and empower people to speak out against racism.	$14,270
Urji Women Support Association Of Edmonton will create a weekly sharing circle for Black Muslim women.	$14,861
Local Community Participatory Action Research Grant Stream
Black Canadian Women in Action Society will conduct research examining the barriers preventing Black Canadian women from entrepreneurship in Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM).	$25,000
World Sikh Organization of Canada will conduct surveys and focus groups with Sikh youth in the Edmonton area to determine the extent and impact of bullying and racism that they experience.	$24,872

Project Ready Matching Grant Stream

Centre For Intellectual Excellence Ltd. will bring together professional experts, educators, community leaders, government officials and corporate CEOs in a three-day workshop to discuss diversity, equity and inclusion best practices.	$25,000
Royal Alexandra Hospital Foundation will support the Indigenous Cultural Partnership, which is a collaboration between the Lois Hole Hospital for Women and Indigenous-led organizations in Edmonton.	$25,000
Sisters Dialogue Inc. will create an awareness campaign to foster understanding and create safe spaces for reflection, connections, and healing with Muslim women and girls.	$20,000