

How to Apply to the Ride Transit Program

Ride Transit is a program that can provide subsidized monthly transit for eligible Edmontonians. The length of approval in the Ride Transit Program depends on the documentation provided by the applicant. Most applicants are approved for the Ride Transit program for 1 to 2 years. Individuals using AISH documentation may receive program approval for up to 5 years.

¹ If you haven't received a welcome letter within 3 months of applying, please call 311.

² To find out if you qualify for a Conditional Approval, which gives riders temporary access to Ride Transit for two months, bring your completed application, required documentation and an Arc card, if you have one, to the Edmonton Service Centre. The complete review process for Ride Transit applicants may take up to three months.

³ Ride Transit applicants can receive one complimentary Arc card after approval by visiting edmonton.ca/RideTransit under the Getting Your Free Arc Card and Information Package.

⁴ Funds can be added to the account in multiple ways, all listed on myArc.ca.
