Task Force Guiding Principles

The Task Force members agree to abide by the following guiding principles as they work together through their mandate:

- An environment that supports and enables constructive and respectful dialogue from all members.
- Collaboration amongst one another, with others relevant to our tasks, and in all interactions relating to Task Force responsibilities.
- A spirit of gratitude in how we operate and communicate. We are grateful to have these positions on this Task Force and the opportunity to influence funding to best support Councillors' operations.
- We should endeavour to align individual talents and interests with specific initiatives or tasks.
- Clear is kind. We will mutually ensure clarity of expectations and rationale for our activities and next steps.
