

\*Please note the following are the questions for the CSWB Grant and is intended as a resource only. For an application to be considered it must be submitted online.***

Community Safety & Well-being Grant

Practice Form July - September 2022

Edmonton

Applications must be completed online to be considered

Community Safety and Well-being 2022 Grant

Community leaders and organizations that have a program, service, project, event or initiative that can help advance community safety and well-being in Edmonton are encouraged to apply for up to $100,000 in one-time grant funding support. A total of $1.5 million will be allocated by the end of 2022.

Applications will be accepted until 11:59 p.m. September 12, 2022. Successful applicants will be notified by email that their application has been approved by October 4, 2022.

Recipients of a 2022 Community Safety and Well-being Grant will be required to complete a final report outlining the results and outcomes achieved as part of the grant's terms and conditions. Recipients may also be requested for status/progress updates. Additional details will be shared with successful applicants.

This application should take approximately 20-30 minutes to complete.

Application Instructions

Please answer all questions to the best of your ability. Upon submitting an application, any missed questions will require a response before your submission is accepted. If a question is not relevant to your application simply answer 'No' or "not applicable" to ensure that all questions provided have a response.

Declaration

The applicant declares, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the information provided is truthful and accurate, and that the application is made on behalf of the application-named organization.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Statement

Personal information is being collected under the authority of section 33(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act and will be used by the City of Edmonton, Community Grants Office to determine eligibility for this grant and for the management and administration of this program. The information in this application may be shared with other internal City of Edmonton business areas for reporting analysis. If you have any questions about the collection or use of your personal or organizational information, please email cswbgrants@edmonton.ca.

\*Please note the following are the questions for the CSWB Grant and is intended as a resource only. For an application to be considered it must be submitted online.***

Practice Application: (note: only applications submitted online will be considered for funding.)

Contact Information

(The following information will be used by the City of Edmonton for administrative purposes.)

1. Name of applicant or initiative lead:
2. Name of organization (if applicable):
3. Organization Registration Number (if applicable): e.g., charity number
4. Best day-time phone number:
5. What is the legal name of the applicant or organization? (This is who the funds, if awarded, will be issued to.)
6. What is the mailing address including the postal code?

Application Assessment

Between September 12 and October 1, all applications will be assessed to determine alignment with the outcomes and principles of the CSWB Strategy, as well as the applicant's capacity and plans to implement the initiative.

Contributions and Outcomes

1. First select which community safety and well-being outcome(s) the initiative you are applying for funding supports and then, in the next section, provide details on how the outcome(s) is supported. For more information on the Community Safety and Well-being Strategy outcomes, please visit: edmonton.ca/safetyandwellbeing, Outcomes supported through the initiative:
  - a. Anti-racism: Policies and structures in place that are anti-racist, reconciliatory and support equity and inclusion. Individuals and communities that have experienced systemic racism and historical trauma are included, valued and respected.
  - b. Reconciliation: Edmontonians, Indigenous Peoples, and the City have authentic, interconnected relationships that honour, understand, and collaboratively integrate Indigenous experiences, histories, and cultures.
  - c. Safe and Inclusive Spaces: Communities are supported and empowered to create safe, inclusive, vibrant, sustainable and resilient spaces.

\*Please note the following are the questions for the CSWB Grant and is intended as a resource only. For an application to be considered it must be submitted online.***

- d. Equitable Policies, Procedures, Standards and Guidelines: People making Edmonton home have enriched experiences through equitable access to programs, services, and spaces.
- e. Pathways In and Out of Poverty: Edmontonians have the economic, social, and cultural resources to have a quality of life that sustains and facilitates full and meaningful participation in the community.
- f. Crime Prevention and Crisis Intervention: All people feel safe and secure throughout the city because crime has been reduced through community-collaboration and culturally appropriate approaches.
- g. Well-being: Edmontonians have the capacity and opportunity to pursue experiences of connection to self, body, land, arts and culture, community, human development, and spirit.

If your initiative does not support any of the above outcomes, it will not qualify for a CSWB Grant.

2. Please describe how your initiative is expected to advance the outcome(s) you selected.
3. Please select which guiding principles for action may apply to your initiative:
  - a. Safety or Well-being focused: The action should seek to reduce systemic barriers, threats to safety, or create a deeper sense of connection to land, family, body/self/purpose, and/or culture.
  - b. Equity-based: The action will incorporate a GBA+ approach to remove systemic barriers.
  - c. Person-centered: Grounded in personal experience, the action will create a sense of connection that empowers and uplifts individuals.
  - d. Community-led: The action is led by the community which convenes, plans, coordinates, funds, and/or executes the work. The action involves collaboration between partners to ensure integration across systems.
  - e. Data-informed: The action is informed by research, analysis, knowledge and insights from one or more of Indigenous, Eastern, Western, and Interdisciplinary perspectives. Measurements will inform how to adapt and evolve the approach.
  - f. Trauma-informed: The action creates changes with long-term effects in alignment with the Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action, anti-racism and trauma-informed work to strengthen resilience among Edmontonians and their families.
  - g. None of the above
4. Please describe how your initiative is expected to advance the guiding principle for the action you selected.

1.

\*Please note the following are the questions for the CSWB Grant and is intended as a resource only. For an application to be considered it must be submitted online.***

Initiative description

A total of $1.5 million has been allocated to advance community safety and well-being and will go toward initiatives that address emergent community needs or opportunities, and that can be completed within the next 24 months.

1. Project name.
2. When is the expected start date?
3. When is the expected end date?
4. How many people is your initiative expected to serve?
5. Where in the city of Edmonton will the initiative be located? (This can be a specific location such as a venue or more general, such as a community.)
6. How are you or your organization best positioned to deliver this project?
7. What barriers or challenges do you expect to encounter and how will you address them?
8. As a requirement of grant approval, please confirm you have qualified volunteers and/or staff to perform the work.

Equity

The following questions relate to equity. Equity is defined as the fair treatment, access and opportunity for everyone while identifying and eliminating barriers. Examples of equity-deserving individuals and groups may include women, racialized and Indigenous people, and people with disabilities.

Please provide a short description in relation to your initiative for the following questions:

1. Who is impacted?
2. Why are they impacted?
3. What is the impact?
4. How does your initiative address the impact you have described?

Initiative evaluation

1. How will you know that the proposed initiative is successful? We are looking for goals that are specific, measurable, attainable, realistic and time-bound. With this in mind, please list which objectives you will be measuring within your initiative, as this will be required as part of your final reporting if your application is successful..

\*Please note the following are the questions for the CSWB Grant and is intended as a resource only. For an application to be considered it must be submitted online.***

2. Describe how your initiative helps fulfill a need(s) and/or strengthens an area of safety or well-being that requires attention.
3. Please provide a list of ALL estimated eligible costs by uploading the budget template. Please reference the FAQ to see which expenses are eligible.
4. What is the total of the eligible costs (this is the amount you are requesting funding for)?
5. If there are partners involved in your initiative, please provide the names and details of their contributions (e.g., volunteers, in-kind contributions, donations)
6. This funding is one-time. Do you anticipate a need for ongoing funding? If so, how do you plan to address this?

Other Funding

7. Are you, your organization, the initiative in this application currently receiving any other funding support from the City of Edmonton (including in-kind contributions)? If so, please describe the grant or program funding amount and your point of contact.
8. Have you applied for or received funding from any other sources outside of the City of Edmonton for this work?

You MUST complete the application online to have your project considered for funding.

Thank you