6. Stakeholder Engagement Working Group Update

The consultants have had a number of responses to the surveys including in-depth interviews. The survey is now closed. G. Smith will invite the consultants to the August Commission meeting.

7. Roles and Responsibilities

A draft of the Roles and Responsibilities document outlining expectations was shared with the Commission. T. Babb will update the document based on the discussion and will provide a revised version at the next meeting for approval.

8. Chair's Report

The retreat was a success. A budget was created for 2022 and a work plan was created for 2022/2023. There was discussion about creating a better relationship between operations and governance.

Goals from the retreat include looking at the structure of the Commission and what the policy review will look like over the next couple of years.

Thanks to S. Bugeja for her good work as Commission Chair and her ongoing support. D. O'Callaghan will deliver a token of the Commission's appreciation.

Time frames have been added to the agenda as discussed at the retreat. At every other meeting, 45 minutes will be set aside for working group discussions. Commission members are asked to provide feedback on this new structure to D. O'Callahan.

Budget numbers will be uploaded to the financial statements. The Commission requested that the Executive Director provide a breakdown of where past ECSC revenue has come from.

MOVED: To adopt the 2022 budget planning document.

CARRIED

MOVED: To adopt the Draft work plan as presented.
