This is the Entry Plaza to the Edmonton Valley Zoo.

I will know I have arrived at the Entry Plaza when I see the big gates. This is how I enter and exit the Zoo. At closing time, the Entry Plaza gates might be closed. I can exit through the door on the left side.

In the Entry Plaza, there is a statue that looks like a big sturgeon fish. In the winter, this water feature is turned off. It may be covered with snow and ice.

There is a big fireplace in the Entry Plaza where I may see fire. I will not try to touch the fire. I can sit next to the fireplace if I want to.

I can buy food at the Plaza Cafe if I want to. I can sit inside the cafe or outside.

I can use the restroom here in the plaza before entering or exiting the Zoo. The restroom is wheelchair accessible. There are also more restrooms inside the Zoo if I need to use one.

The Edventure Lodge building is where many school, group, and day camp programs happen. This building also has office space and a meeting room. It may smell like fish in this building at times.

When you arrive, you will show your ticket to the worker at Guest Services. If you have not bought a ticket yet, this is where you can buy one. You can also purchase a membership here.

The gift shop at the Zoo is called the Zootique. You can visit the gift shop to buy a souvenir if you want to.
