

Neighbourhood Empowerment Team

Staff Profile

Stephen Quinn
Community Safety Liaison
City of Edmonton
West Division

Stephen has a broad variety of professional experience working with youth in intensive treatment settings and also with seniors who have been victims of abuse. He advocates for individuals and families experiencing chronic homelessness, addictions, abuse, mental health and financial insecurity.

Stephen brings passion and excellent relationship building skills in working with diverse individuals to help them feel safe and supported in their communities.

Stephen has been working on the Neighbourhood Empowerment Team for 3+ years and enjoys engaging with communities by learning about their strengths to create a safe and inclusive place for all.
