

NEIGHBOURHOOD DESCRIPTION

Gareipy is located along the North Saskatchewan River Valley, and mostly developed in the 1970s and early 1980s. The neighbourhood extends from Callingwood Road south to the North Saskatchewan River Valley, and between 178 Street and 170 Street. Residents of the neighbourhood are afforded a scenic view of Terwillegar Park in the river valley.

Gareipy was designed with keyhole crescents and curvilinear roads, and pathways through the neighbourhood promote pedestrian travel. There are commercial services available at a neighbourhood shopping centre, and West Edmonton Mall is nearby. Educational and recreation facilities are located at the centre of the neighbourhood.

Gareipy was named in honour of Joseph Hormisdas Gareipy who was an early pioneer merchant.
