has been adopted by Edmonton City Council. Thank you for your time, ideas and contributions - they were essential to developing The City Plan.

We invite you to discover cityplan.edmonton.ca, a new digital platform that gives you an inspiring and visual overview of The City Plan and helps you find the policy directions that matter most to you.

Implementing The City Plan's Land-Use Concept: District Plans and the Zoning Bylaw Renewal Initiative

Back in December, Council approved The City Plan - Edmonton's combined Municipal Development Plan (MDP) and Transportation Master Plan. Now, the City is actively working towards implementing The City Plan's vision of a healthy, urban, prosperous and climate resilient city, which includes evolving how we plan and develop our land.
