Staff Profile

Courage Fon
Community Safety Liaison
City of Edmonton
Northwest Division

Courage has a Ph.D. in Social Sciences major in Social Work and over eight years experience working with children, families and people from diverse backgrounds. She has an avid interest in seeing that children live in safer communities. Courage finds fulfilment in making a difference in people's lives and is passionate about diversity and inclusion. Communities hold a vast amount of knowledge, so Courage is looking forward to learning and contributing in making our neighbourhoods better and safer. Most especially, Courage believes no idea is dangerous enough not to be heard. She is open to learning about all types of ideas. She is a good listener and has a great sense of humour.
