

Neighbourhood Empowerment Team

Staff Profile

Evan Brunner
Youth Liaison
The Family Centre
West Division

Evan holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology as well as a Master's Degree in Human Security and Peacebuilding. She has professional experience working with several diverse populations including seniors and Indigenous communities. She also previously worked as a programming officer in Belgium where she developed activities and programs for unaccompanied refugee youth. She is passionate about youth engagement and working with them and their communities to foster a sense of belonging, engagement and safety. During her time with the Neighbourhood Empowerment Team, Evan has had the incredible opportunity to work with youth and youth advocates to enhance youth safety and empowerment in Edmonton.
