Section C – Notifications

Notification # 1:

The City wishes to ensure that the information session scheduled for 08 May 2014, provides the prospect bidding community with an opportunity to gain further clarity and understanding regarding the Project, the RFQ and the Project Procurement Process.

The session is designed to expressly address the needs of the bidding community and potential Respondents in formulating RFQ responses. It is not a public engagement or public involvement forum.

Interested parties are requested to inform the Contact Person of the names of representatives expected to attend. Interested parties that inform the Contact Person by 01 May 2014 will be considered pre-registered. Pre-registered participants can collect their name tag at the registration desk on the morning of the session.

Space restrictions may apply to the event. If this occurs, preference will be given to the bidding community representatives, consulting advisors, pre-registered interested parties and then other parties in this order of priority.

Registration and name tag collection opens from 07:30 MT on 08 May 2014. Presentations will begin at 08:30 sharp. Light breakfast and refreshments will be provided.
