

Supportive Housing In Westmount

Edmonton

February 16, 2021

Date Change

The City of Edmonton is reaching out with an update on the proposed supportive housing development at 11039, 11045 and 11049 130 Street NW.

A previous mailout indicated that the proposed land sale of this City-owned parcel to Homeward Trust would go to City Council for a decision on February 22, 2021. The City Council date has changed.

The land sale proposal will now go to Executive Committee on March 1, 2021. The meeting agenda will be available on February 25, 2021 at edmonton.ca/meetings. You can request to speak at edmonton.ca/meetings or by calling the Office of the City Clerk at 780-496-8178.

The meeting can be viewed at <http://councilontheweb.edmonton.ca/>

Community Engagement

If the land sale is approved, public engagement will follow. You will have an opportunity to provide input on a Good Neighbour Plan, a tool for developing a positive relationship between supportive housing and the community. Visit edmonton.ca/westmountsupportivehousing to participate. If you do not have access to the internet, please call 311 and leave your contact information. A member of the supportive housing team will call you back to arrange alternatives.

Stay in touch

If you have questions or concerns, please email supportivehousing@edmonton.ca or call 311 and leave your contact information.
