

Figure 1: The above graph represents the distribution of replacement values across the asset portfolios. Generally speaking, the percent distribution does not change significantly year over year. Facilities and Goods and People will always have a higher proportion of the values due to the number and value of the portfolio's assets.

Sourced from: City of Edmonton Integrated Infrastructure Services' 2025 Inventory