

8 September 2018

The historic horse barn at the University of Alberta farm was built in 1920 where the Stollery Hospital stands today. It was moved to the South Campus in 1930 & then again in 2010 to where it is today across from the Green & Gold Garden.

