

Merlinda Wymann

3 November 2018

The Nurses Home building (now the University of Alberta's Research Transition Facility) was built in 3 sections in the 1940s and 1950s. Unfortunately, the graceless pedestrian overpass over 114 St crowds and obliterates the front of this charming heritage building. I was only able to sketch an oblique angle.