

The Provincial Museum & Archives of Alberta opened in 1967 in the Glenora neighbourhood. The exterior is faced with Tyndall stone that incorporates petroglyph designs. The interior walls are marble and the floors black granite. All Canadian stone.

