

1 December 2018

Rutherford House was built in 1911, designed with Georgian/Jacobethan Revival influences. Alberta's first Premier, Dr. Alexander Cameron Rutherford, lived here with his wife Mattie and their children. It was designated a Provincial Historic Site in 1979.

