What You’ll See at Intersections

- Brightly-coloured and
- Consider using the following you have the right
- weather specific clothing
- we weaving around parked
- a straight path rather than
- the road.

What You’ll See on the Road

- Hand Signals
  - let you know it’s ok to ride.
  - we do not block the bike lane.
- Easy On!
  - Pull the support arm out and
  - rear wheels.
  - tire to secure it in place.

On Your Bike

- Use of winter bike lane
  - Monday to Friday from:
  - Stairs
  - Make safe turns by using it
  - and giving them a head
  - at a signalized intersection,
  - the X.

On Your Feet

- Shared-Use Path Etiquette
  - Be Respectful
  - Share the path.
  - These signs help to direct
  - a physical barrier, making driving and
  - vehicle traffic and are suitable
  - for many activities.  You can
  - packed with gravel, wood
  - or painted markings on the roadway.

On Your Car

- On-street bike lanes marked
  - Painted Bike Lanes
  - These routes are marked with blue
  - or green Paint indicates
  - the direction of travel and
  - new direction of travel and
  - physical barrier, making driving and
  - vehicle traffic and are suitable
  - for many activities.  You can
  - packed with gravel, wood
  - or painted markings on the roadway.

Some helpful tips for all road users

- These routes are marked
  - Painted Bike Lanes
  - These routes are marked
  - with blue
  - or green Paint indicates
  - the direction of travel and
  - physical barrier, making driving and
  - vehicle traffic and are suitable
  - for many activities.  You can
  - packed with gravel, wood
  - or painted markings on the roadway.

- Do you know where you are going.
- Where you are going.
- Do you know where you are going.
- Where you are going.
- Do you know where you are going.